In this video interview with Captain Chris Hearn, Mayor Danny Breen learns more about this world-class facility, while highlighting some of the many advantages to living, working, studying and investing in our city.

News Briefs

Memorial University Adds $627 million Yearly to NL Economy

A new report from KPMG confirms that Memorial University is a significant contributor to the local, provincial and national economy. Memorial adds approximately $627 million to Newfoundland and Labrador's economy each year and supports 9,922 jobs throughout the province. The study considered the impact of spending by the university itself, employee and student spending, the impact of visitors to Memorial and the ripple effect of additional income earned by alumni due to their Memorial degrees. According to President Vianne Timmons, "Memorial creates jobs, supports local businesses, educates knowledgeable graduates, and fosters innovation and entrepreneurship that will continue to help the economy grow and diversify."

NLOWE's New Mentorship Program

A big part of starting a new business is learning the path to success. A new mentorship program for women entrepreneurs hopes to do just that. The Newfoundland and Labrador Organization of Women Entrepreneurs (NLOWE) has launched a mentorship program to help women entrepreneurs focus on business and professional development. Restaurant Sales Increase in NL

The latest Food Services and Drinking Places survey from Statistics Canada indicates unadjusted sales in the food service and drinking places subsector increased (+21.02%) to $76.4 million in September 2021 compared to September 2020 in Newfoundland and Labrador. The figures cover gross sales, not profit. Further information is available in the Food Services and Drinking Places Sales dashboard, where users can consult data on sales in food services and drinking places for Canada and by province.

TaskforceNL Challenge to Business Leaders

TaskforceNL, a group of volunteer business leaders in Newfoundland and Labrador who worked closely with government to find personal protective equipment for front-line workers, has started a #JustAnHour initiative. The initiative aims to help aspiring newcomer and immigrant entrepreneurs through the sharing of knowledge and expertise from business leaders in the community. The group is committing to offering 500 hours of subject matter expertise to entrepreneurs from leaders across our province. TaskforceNL is asking business leaders to give just one hour to assist the aspiring entrepreneurs of this province with coaching and advice to help their businesses grow and thrive. If you want to be a part of this movement, fill out the following form.
